

Security in knowledge

Techno-Ethics for Lawyers How Technology Complicates Ethical Compliance

Moderator:

John E. Jorgensen, CEO
The Sylint Group, Inc

Panelists:

Hon. Andrew J. Peck
United States District Court,
Magistrate Judge

Joseph Burton, Esq.
Managing Partner
Duane Morris, LLP

Steven Teppler, Esq.
Partner,
Kirk-Pinkerton, PA

Serge Jorgensen, CTO
The Sylint Group, Inc.

RSACONFERENCE2013

Session ID: LAW-W25

Session Classification: Intermediate

Agenda

- ▶ Ethical Obligations in a Technological World
 - ▶ Computer Forensics & eDiscovery
 - ▶ Preservation
 - ▶ Disclosure
 - ▶ Openness
 - ▶ Recent Cases and Adverse Results
 - ▶ Misrepresenting Data as Evidence
 - ▶ Withholding Data
 - ▶ The Courts View
 - ▶ Sanctions
 - ▶ Decisions

Agenda (Continued)

- ▶ Can You Maximize Technology
 - ▶ Don't Take Shortcuts
 - ▶ Spending More Money Doesn't Mean Better Technology
- ▶ Knowing Your Experts
 - ▶ They Can Get You Into Trouble
 - ▶ You Have To Understand For The Court To Understand
- ▶ Will The Technological Problem Get Worse?

Applied Results

- ▶ How to keep technology from becoming an ethical trap.
- ▶ Know current decisions and law.
- ▶ How to select your technology expert.

Techno-Ethics for Lawyers

Security in knowledge